3 Notes on completing the Deed of Trust

Both the employer and the trustees should read this section before completing and signing the Deed of Trust.

1. Insert the date on which the Deed of Trust is completed and signed (i.e. the day, month and year).
2. Insert the name of the employer who is setting up the group life assurance scheme followed by the appropriate statement from (a), (b) or (c) below.
 - (a) If the employer is a limited company, insert the employer's name followed by "whose registered office is situated at..." and then complete the company's registered address.
 - (b) If the employer is a partnership, insert the names of the partners followed by "carrying on the business in partnership under the style of..." followed by the trading name of the partnership and its address. After the words ("the employer"), add in "which expression will include the partner or partners thereof for the time being".
 - (c) If the employer is a sole trader, insert the full name of the individual concerned and their business address. The employer can choose whether they wish to include their trading name.
3. Insert the name of the group life assurance scheme (e.g. "The ABC Limited Group Life Assurance Scheme").
4. This should be the commencement date of the group life assurance scheme. The commencement date should not be before the date of the Deed of Trust but it should be on or before the date the first payment is made to Royal London.
5. Insert the names and addresses of the trustees to be appointed to this group life assurance scheme.
6. Where witnesses are required, there must be one witness to each signature. The same individual may witness more than one signature. Anyone who is already involved with this Deed (i.e. employer or trustee) cannot act as a witness to any of the other trustee's signatures.

Partnership	This section must be signed by the partners who are authorised and/or required to sign in terms of their partnership agreement plus witness(es). If the employer is resident in Scotland, the firm name must also be signed by one of the partners.
Sole trader	This section must be signed by the individual, plus a witness.
Charity, club or other unincorporated body	This section must be signed by the authorised signatory/signatories required in terms of its Constitution plus a witness.

4 Deed of Trust

Both the employer and the trustees must complete this section.

We recommend that all employers and trustees consult with their legal advisers before signing this Deed.

This Deed is made the (see note 1) day of in the year (see note 2)

by

(the "employer")

Considering that:

The employer has decided to establish a group life assurance scheme (the "scheme") to provide benefits which are authorised payments as defined in Part 4 of Finance Act 2004 for various employees of the employer and of such associated employers as may be admitted to participation in the scheme and which have agreed in writing to be bound by the rules mentioned in clause 4 below (the "rules") as far as these are applicable to that employer.

Now this Deed provides as follows:

1. The scheme constituted by this Deed shall be called (see note 3)
and will commence on the (see note 4) day of in the year
2. The employer appoints (see note 5)

(the "trustees") as the first trustees of the scheme in terms of the rules. By signing this Deed the trustees accept office.
3. The trustees shall receive, hold and apply the contributions that are to be made under the scheme and the funds created by these contributions under the trusts declared in this Deed.
4. The scheme shall be administered in accordance with the provisions of the rules annexed to this Deed and all valid amendments made to these.
5. The employer agrees to be bound by the rules applicable to it.
6. The trusts declared by this Deed are irrevocable.
7. The scheme is governed by the Law of Scotland or England and Wales according to whether the employer is resident in Scotland or outside Scotland.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this document is executed as a deed on the day and year first above written.
